EXPLOSION EXCITES SOME IMAGINATION

Movie Troup Exchange Pleasantries, and Cause Much Excitement
Among Timid Citizens

Did you hear the explosion Tuesday night?

If you did you were not the only one to have mental visions of seeing a 42-centimeter shell go whizzing over the city and your beloved home in ashes the work of a vandal enemy.

No, it wasn't all of that. It was only Romaine Fielding and his troupe of movie cutthroats and outlaws, just showing how good they felt by blowing up a house or two down by the river or thereabouts.

For several nights the Lubin people have been perfecting a scenario, depicting scenes from the Mexican revolution, all of which took much shooting to carry out the "stuff." As a climax, it was thought best to make a good job of it, and blow up what was left of the house and shacks they had been using.

Shortly after the terrific explosion shook the center of the city telephone calls began to pour into The Republican office. One excited subscriber was suffering under a brain storm to the effect that Mexican bandits were blowing up the Center street bridge. Some one else wanted to know if it was true that the militia had been called out to repulse the attack of the bloodthirsty hordes approaching from the south. All were calmly supplied with the information that it was only a faked attempt at being all those things mentioned above.

BIGGEST REAL ESTATE DEAL OF THE YEAR

Getsinger Will Auction Off Many
Lots in New Gilbert Township

As one of the big real estate events of the season a great deal of interest has been aroused in the Getsinger-Lacy excursion to Gilbert today. The special train leaves here at ten this morning and Auctioneer Getsinger reports that judging from the number of inquiries and requests for barbecue tickets that the train will be crowded. Getsinger is one of the best known auctioneers in the west, among his sales being that of about $100,000 worth of property for the United States government at Parker, $18,000 worth of lots in Mesa, $24,000 in Tempe and $20,000 in Glendale, beside a great many satisfactory sales in and around Phoenix.

The property to be sold tomorrow at Gilbert is located between the depot and the school and is said to be the logical location for the stores and other business houses. Gilbert is surrounded by over 25,000 acres of high-class land which is irrigated from the Roosevelt dam. Seventeen hundred acres of hay were shipped from Gilbert in 1914, while other shipments included 12,000 pounds of dairy products daily, beside many carloads of fat cattle. Very reasonable terms have been arranged on the lots to be sold tomorrow and a good sale is expected.

Hire a little salesman at The Republican office. A Want Ad will see more customers than you can.

ARIZONA HAS UNIQUE ARCHITECTURE TYPES

Automobile, Architectural Show Will Bring Out Two Distinct Building
Conceptions

Successful architects throughout the country generally possess in addition to high technical ability an artistic conception that is often of a very high order. Their studies in the realm of art, for architecture is one of the great arts, result often in collections of pictures that would do credit to many amateur picture collections. The committee in charge of the architectural department of the coming automobile and architectural exposition have been allotted the large room on the right of the main entrance of the First Battalion Armory, at the corner of First and Polk streets, for the display of these pictures. This room will partake largely of the nature of a rest room, but it will be adorned with pictures from the collections of all the architects in the city who so far have expressed their willingness to co-operate in making the exhibition a success.

This is going to make that room one of the most attractive sections of the great show. The picture display will have an object, as will everything else that is done in connection with the show. It is to be utilitarian also in that it will draw attention directly to the plans best suited to buildings in this section of the southwest, as well as showing numbers of studies for plans typical of this country.

There are two styles that are a part and parcel of the history of building in this country, which have been used largely in many buildings in modern sections of the southwest. These two styles are known as the Mission and the Pueblo. The Mission style was that of the Spanish fathers who came either with or before the conquerors—some after it—and whose churches are still the wonder of the world. The Pueblo style of building was that of the town Indians, and there are many exemplifications in this state.

Some of the architects who are to exhibit have made a study of these buildings and their adaptation for modern purposes, which have been reduced to drawings and pictures, the whole forming a most attractive exhibit interesting and educational.

It is hardly necessary to predict that this part of the exposition will be thronged daily and nightly by interested Phoenixians and residents of the valley, anxious to see the ideas of the local building planners.

CENTRAL SCHOOL MAY NOW PAVE ITS STREETS

New Law Permits Sale of Bonds for Improvement—Federal Block Paving May Follow

The passage of an amendatory bill in the legislature and its approval by the governor, will permit the Central school to get rid of some approved improvement bonds, and to pave that half of the Central avenue block that has been such a nuisance for so long. Postmaster C. B. Wood sees in this the possibility of a revival of interest in the plan to pave around the federal building, so as to rid the city of another source of adverse comment.

In the original bill, which, it seems, was one of the few measures drawn up for the first legislature by an attorney, there was no provision for the sale of the bonds. Now, in two years after the bonds were elected, it is "made and provided" that they may be disposed of, so that the work can proceed.

Uncle Sam has a rigidly enforced policy of never paying for improvements about federal buildings. Paving for the block around the postoffice will have to be paid for by the city. Another thing, however, enters into the consideration—the impossibility of paying straight up North First avenue until another siphon is constructed for the Salt River canal. This canal forms a bug-bear, against which each north and south street will have to contend, when the paving question comes up for the ditch is inconsiderate enough to be off grade.

Lehi News

Last Saturday, clear and bright, provided an ideal day for the field sports arranged for the celebration of the anniversary of the arrival of the first company of white settlers in the Lehi valley. There was a large crowd in attendance. Practically every one in the place was present. The sports began at 10 a. m. with various kinds of foot races, bicycle races, etc. The winner of each race was awarded a small prize.

The races occupied practically the entire morning. While the sports were going on in the ball park and the school grounds, the ladies had charge of a number of very interesting booths at the hall nearby where home-made candies, hot cocoa and cake, hot sandwiches and ice cream were for sale. Nearly all of the estates were disposed of by noon.

In the afternoon a basket ball game was played between the girls of the town team and the school team composed of girls from the seventh and eight grades. The town girls won the game after a rather spirited debate with Prof. O. C. Jones the referee, over certain rules of the game. There was also a lively baseball game between the Lehi boys and the Indians from the local reservation. The Lehi team were splendid in their brand new grey uniforms with Lehi in black letters. But in spite of the fact of the new uniforms the Lehi team allowed the Indians to carry off the honors of the day as ball players. Not the least interesting feature of the day's program was an auction sale. Various articles had been donated by different ones for the sale. There was a pony, a ton of hay, a buggy, a plow, and different farm implements; also chickens, turkeys, etc. Nearly every article was sold at a fair price. A good sum of money was raised which was turned over to the M. I. A.

The only unfortunate incident of the day was caused by a ball striking Mrs. Dan Thompson in the face and breaking her nose.

The school census of this district has just been completed by Census Marshal O. C. Jones, showing 217 children of school age residing in the district. This is a considerable increase over last year.

H. DeFries, who lives at the Latter Day Saints mission on the Indian reservation, reports that he is improving the grounds by setting out fruit trees and many ornamental shrubs. He is fruit trees on their own places as very few of them raise any fruit of their own.

Sunday night the Lehi Mutuals held a joint session instead of their regular lesson meeting. A very interesting program was rendered.

Relatives of Henry Thompson have received word that he has recently been seriously though not fatally injured by falling 30 feet in a mine in Bisbee where he was employed. Mr. Thompson is now in the hospital at that place.

Mrs. Eschbarts of this place is expecting a visit for her sister and family, who reside in the Tonto country.

Heber Johnson, who recently took charge of the Ellis Johnson ranch, has all the cotton stalks from last year's crop cleared off; the ground in shape and will plant the greater portion of the 60 acres to grain. Mr. and Mrs. Huber and family are recent arrivals here. They expect to make this their home. They were formerly from Old Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods and two children are also new comers here. For the present they are living in the old Crismon school house.

The Goodson family have returned after a several months residence at Mesa.

There arrived last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Jones a baby boy. There is also a new boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams. This caused much disappointment among the other three young Master Williams, as they had ordered a little sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Helvel Jewell and little son, also Mr. Jewell's aged mother, moved last week to Phoenix. For the past two years they have lived on the Ed Pomeroy ranch.

Quite a number of Lehi people went to Mesa Sunday afternoon to hear the band concert, to see the ball game and also the crowd.

Mrs. Angus Johnson, formerly Miss Nomic Merrill of this place, is again confined to her bed at the Southside hospital at Mesa, where she underwent a serious operation last week.

Either Way--- Drugs Are Harmful!

If a coffee drinker, have you stopped to think that, with every cup of coffee, you are taking from two to three grains of caffeine, a slow, but powerful, drug?

According to medical authorities, caffeine is a cause of nervousness, heart trouble, indigestion, constipation and other ailments. It's a cumulative drug, and what's more, a habit-forming drug.

Sometime, when the coffee-drug gets into its tricks, you'll realize the harm it does; but wouldn't it be better to avoid trouble—stop coffee now and use Postum.

It is a pure food-drink, made from selected wheat and a little wholesome molasses, carefully roasted, ground and skillfully blended. This gives it a snappy taste much like that rich, old Java, but Postum is absolutely free from caffeine, or any other harmful ingredient.

Postum comes in two forms:—Postum Cereal—requires boiling—15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum—a soluble form—no boiling required—made instantly in the cup with hot water—30c and 50c tins.

The difference is only in the form. Both kinds are equally wholesome and delicious and the cost per cup is about the same. Be sure to ask for the kind you want.
